

Final Project Instructions

1. Describe your project program and how to run in a README.txt. file.
2. Enclose all the related files in a folder called LastName_Final-Project.
3. Remember the constraints of your code and do mention them.
4. Think of this project folder as something you will fish for after 20 weeks and you ought to be able to read it and understand what is going on.